BOARD TO DECIDE PROPRIETY OF JOKE

Patrolmen Almost Come to Blows in Quarrel.

Will Rogers Resents Ernest Hill's Making Light of His Political Aspirations.

CANDIDATE FOR CITY JAILER.

A difficulty between Ernest Hill and William Rogers, who patrol the North Side beat, from Trimble street north, will be investigated by the police commissioners at the next meeting.

The two officers were joking near Seventh and Trimble streets Saturday night. Patrolman Rogers is considering running for city jailer and the other was joking him about it. Patrolman Rogers is said to have become enraged at his fellow officer and made an attempt to strike Hill with his club.

Interference by former Detective Will Baker prevented the encounter and the matter was carried no further. A member of the board of fire and police commissioners stated this morning that the difficulty will be investigated in the board.

Graves Circuit Court.

Graves circuit court convened today and several Paducah attorneys went down to attend. The most important cases in which a local interest is centered are: Will Thomas for killing Henry Cooley. Cooley formerly lived in Paducah. George Goodman company and Jake Biederman company for alleged irregularities in liquor selling in Graves. The latter are appeals from the police court.

Westmoreland, Kan., May 5, 1902. Ballard Snow Liniment Co. Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Miss. Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. Sold by Alvey & List.

ACTED QUEER.

Virgil Eggester Arrested But Rescued by Relatives.

Virgil Eggester, a full grown negro man, was arrested yesterday but released today with the understanding that he leave the city and not come back. He is charged with acting in a disorderly manner, but his mind is said to be unsound, and on promise of relatives to get him out of Paducah, he was released from the jail. The police say he has been throwing bricks, rocks, sticks and anything he could lay hands on at boys and girls. He has been going into houses and cutting up all sorts of capers. He was arrested and kept in jail until this morning when the compromise was reached. Relatives have taken him out of the city.
